

ACCESS GUIDE

She Productions is a female-led theatre company based in the East Riding of Yorkshire, we are a charity dedicated to creating inclusive, accessible, and community-centred work.

Through pop-up family musicals, original productions, and far-reaching outreach projects, we place diverse voices at the heart of our storytelling and remove barriers so that every artist and audience member feels welcomed, represented, and valued.

From libraries and schools to underserved rural communities, we champion the belief that theatre should be for everyone especially those who might not otherwise experience it.
